

SPOTLIGHT ON OUR SPECIALIST TEACHER

Veena Jayanth

At DAS International, We're excited to introduce you to Veena Jayanth, a Senior Specialist Teacher at DAS International, who is making a profound impact on education through her dedication and personalised teaching methods.

A Lifetime of Learning: Veena embarked on her teaching career with a Bachelor's degree in English Literature followed by a Master's degree in English Literature. With a deep understanding of language and literature, she embarked on her teaching career, specialising in English and Social Studies for secondary and senior secondary classes.

A Child-Centric Approach: Veena strongly believes that every child has a unique style and pace of learning. Her Diploma in Special Education was a pivotal point in her career, allowing her to focus on helping children with specific learning differences unlock their full potential.

Curriculum-Based Remediation: Veena's teaching philosophy revolves around curriculum-based remediation tailored to each child's strengths and learning style. Her approach aligns the curriculum's expectations with the child's abilities, resulting in significant improvements in performance and self-confidence.

A Global Perspective: Veena's extensive teaching experience spans across various international schools in Singapore, where she has worked with students from different countries. She specialises in supporting children with Dyslexia, ADD, ADHD, and mild ASD, ensuring they thrive in mainstream education. She also supports students online and has students in Indonesia and Turkey.

A Multilingual Connection: Veena's fluency in languages like French, Tamil, Hindi, and Kannada enables her to connect with children from diverse linguistic backgrounds, fostering better communication and understanding.

Continuous Learning: Veena is committed to her professional growth. She has completed various courses and certifications, including the Orton Gillingham program, training as a storytelling volunteer, and a Specialist Diploma in Specific Learning Differences from DAS.

We salute Veena. Join us in celebrating Veena Jayanth's unwavering commitment to personalised education and her belief that every child can succeed when taught in their unique way!

